The 1985-86 Rockets had a franchise record 36-5 record in The Summit in winning the Midwest Division championship. Houston reached the finals by defeating the LA Lakers, 4-1, in the Western Conference finals — winning the last four games. The 1980-81 team finished the regular-season with a 40-42 record, but went on to reach the Finals. The 1980-81 Houston team defeated LA in the first round of the playoffs, proceeded to dump San Antonio and Kansas City before losing to Boston in the Finals. The Rockets and Lakers were the only Western Conference teams to reach the NBA Finals in the '80s.

Akeem Olajuwon paced the 1985-86 team, while two-time NBA MVP Moses Malone led the way 1980-81. The 1976-77 team won the Central Division title and compiled a 49-33 regular-season record.

THE SUMMIT: Since the Rockets began playing in The Summit (Nov. 2, 1975) they have drawn 8,006,103 fans in 680 regular season and playoff games; a 405-210 (.659) regular-season mark; 25-20 (.556) in the playoffs. That's an average of 12,131 — over the last five seasons the Rockets have averaged 16,000 fans per game (97 percent capacity).

WHY HOUSTON IS CALLED ROCKETS: Basketball fans in San Diego were asked to submit their suggestion for a nickname in a contest. More than 1,000 different names were submitted in the 10,000 entries to "Name the Team". After careful deliberation, a group of the city's leading citizens selected the nickname "Rockets" because it kept with the city's theme of a "City in Motion" while reflecting the tremendous growth of the space-age industries in San Diego.

CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMAS

Chairman of the Board

"To us, Charlie Thomas is the prototypical owner. On the one hand he is a great fan, as is his wife Kittsie. On the other hand, when it comes to running the team, he knows that you hire professionals, you support them both emotionally and financially and you demand results from them. He has done that. Under the leadership of Charlie Thomas and Ray Patterson, this franchise has been more successful each year." (David Stern, NBA Commissioner).

Charlie Thomas is entering his ninth season as owner of the Houston Rockets (longer than any of the prior six proprietorships of the team) and he has known nothing but success. Consider the following:

"The Rockets have made the playoffs a franchise best six straight seasons, including a trip to the Finals in 1986.

"The Rockets have had a .500 or better record a franchise best six straight seasons.

"The Rockets won a franchise record 51 games in 1985-86.

"The Rockets have drawn more than 600,000 fans five straight seasons in The Summit, that's 97 percent capacity. The Summit has been sold out for 151 of the last 182 games including exhibitions and playoffs—all franchise bests (the Rockets averaged 7,491 fans in 1982-83).

"With Thomas' help, Houston played host to the NBA's annual All-Star Weekend in 1989; the All-Star game was played in the Astrodome before a record crowd of 44,735.

"Two consecutive "lucky" coin flips brought Ralph Sampson and perennial All-Pro center Akeem Olajuwon to the Rockets (1983 and 1984, respectively).

"Pivotal member of the expansion committee which brought Charlotte, Miami, Minnesota, Orlando into the NBA.

The Knoxville, Tenn., native purchased the Rockets in June of 1982 for approximately $9.8 million—he has had recent queries to purchase the team for $100 million. Thomas received an immediate return on his initial investment. With a call of "heads" (on advice from his youngest daughter Tracy), Houston got the first of what would become back-to-back No. 1 picks and landed Ralph Sampson in the 1983 draft.

"I was familiar with basketball from the standpoint of what the league was planning on doing," Thomas said, citing the innovative salary cap and television plans. "That's what attracted me. I never thought the NBA would do this. You could never overstate the importance of those two coin flips."

Thomas was a quietly successful automobile dealer in the summer of 1982 when he purchased the team with Sidney Shlenker (who went on to own the Denver Nuggets), with encouragement from current San Antonio Spurs' owner Red McCombs. He brought in Austin developer Gary Bradley as a 20 percent owner in 1984 and sold limited partnerships in the remaining 26 percent of the club.

His management team is headed by second-year General Manager Steve Patterson and third-year Head Coach Don Chaney.

"It's like any other business that you would buy. You want to control who you hire to do the job and give them certain guidelines to operate under. But sports is different. That same guy who would buy a bank and hire another guy to run it would buy a team but want to get involved. It's your job as owner to replace management, if needed, but not do their job for them," Thomas said, explaining his ownership philosophy.

The business side of the Rockets has also seen tremendous progress considering the Rockets receive a 49 per cent share of the profits of the Arena Operating Company, plus they also have the rights to sell all signage in the arena. A broadcast package second to none in pro sports completes the package with all games broadcast on KTRH Radio-740 and in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM), all road games telecast on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

Thomas attended the University of Tennessee for two years before he became a Texan in 1956 when he joined an auto agency in Corpus Christi. He purchased his first agency in 1967 in Baytown. He was the 1982 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, and was honored at the Easter Seals Gala in October 1986. He was honored by the City of Houston at its 153rd Anniversary Dinner and Celebration.

Charlie and his wife of 38 years, Kittsie, reside in Houston. They are the parents of three daughters: Kelly; Robin (Mrs. Daniel) Klaas, and Tracy (Mrs. P. Jeffery) Everist.

GARY BRADLEY

Vice-Chairman of the Board

An Austin real estate developer, Gary Bradley, is currently developing Austin's largest master-planned community—Circle C Ranch. Bradley is a self-confessed basketball fanatic who bought into the Houston Rockets, Aug. 15, 1984 and now owns approximately 25 per cent. Charlie Thomas remains the team's majority shareholder and general partner with a 54 per cent interest while the remaining 21 per cent is shared by 30 limited partners. Both Thomas and Bradley are seen quite frequently at Rockets out of town games in addition to the home contests. Bradley, 40, is a native of Amherst, a town of 825 located 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. He has been an Austin resident the last 20 years since enrolling at the University of Texas where he received his degree in finance. Since graduation he has been involved in the Austin real estate market.

E.C. ("ED") SCHMIDT II President

E.C. ("Ed") Schmidt II was named the fourth president in franchise history by owner Charlie Thomas on Sept. 1, 1990. Schmidt succeeds Ray Patterson — the Rockets' Chief Executive Officer from 1972 through 1990.

"I think that Steve and Ed, having worked together the last eight years, will really complement each other with Steve handling the basketball operations and Ed the financial matters of the club," Thomas said. "I think it will be a great combination. I am looking for great things from both of them."

Schmidt is no stranger to the Rockets' organization having served in a number of capacities since Thomas bought the team in 1982. Most recently, he has served as Vice President-Finance, Corporate Secretary and General Counsel. He has also been responsible for relations with the limited partners who were brought into the Rockets' partnership in 1984 to expand the franchise's presence in the Houston business community. He recently completed the renegotiation of the franchise debt with First City Texas-Houston.

"I look forward to working with General Manager Steve Patterson, and offer any support I can," Schmidt said. "My relationship with both Ray and Steve has been rewarding and informative."

Schmidt, who has been Charlie Thomas' attorney and CPA for over 10 years, has a wide range of business experience, including representing Thomas' business interests in the Caribbean and Far East in the early 1980s. He is a former director of South Main Bank, First Texas Savings, Gibraltar Savings and a number of other businesses operated by Thomas. He also was a tax accountant for Arthur Anderson & Co., from 1975 to 1979.

The 43-year-old Schmidt has been in Houston since 1975. He was born at Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana. Schmidt earned his BBA from the University of Texas in 1969, his JD from UT in 1976 and his CPA certificate in 1977.

STEVE PATTERSON

General Manager

Steve Patterson became the Houston Rockets' fourth General Manager on Sept. 11, 1989. Patterson, 33, is the youngest GM in the NBA—plus this marks the first time a father (Ray) and son have combined to run a team as President and General Manager. Ray Patterson had been the Rockets' President and General Manager since May 1, 1972.

Patterson is beginning his seventh fulltime season with the Rockets, having served as Counsel to the President the last five years. Patterson has been involved in most every aspect of the club. He is responsible for all business aspects of the franchise, including the team's marketing and merchandising, negotiation of player contracts, working with the NBA's legal department, negotiations for lease agreements, plus negotiating television and cable contracts (such as the six-year contract with Home Sports Entertainment signed in 1989), and doing all the salary cap permutations for the trades made in the last two years.

His first season as GM was highlighted with the acquisition of Vernon Maxwell from San Antonio for cash—the Rockets were 23-29 at the time and finished 18-12, keeping the franchise record streak of .500+ seasons and playoff appearances intact at six; plus turning the Rockets' one draft selection (12th overall) into two picks with a draft-night trade with Miami that gave the Rockets rights to Dave Jamerson and Carl Herrera.

Patterson literally started on the ground floor as he sold Rockets' season tickets and helped in other areas during the summer months from 1976 through 1983.

Upon earning his Law Degree from the University of Texas (1984), he became Counsel to the President for the Rockets and was put in charge of marketing—he also was group ticket sales manager. He took over the business operations in 1986.

Upon coming to the Rockets on a fulltime basis, Patterson installed a computer network in the front office that handles all the team's ticketing operations as well as word processing, accounting, scouting and salary cap information. This system has been of great assistance in the Rockets maintaining the NBA's highest season-ticket base (over 14,000 seats) the last five seasons. Patterson helped coordinate the Rockets' successful bid for the 1989 NBA All-Star game played in the Astrodome (Feb. 12, 1989). Under Patterson's direction the Rockets have developed a five-state, 19-station radio network anchored by the 50,000-watt flagship KTRH (740 AM). Last season the Rockets became one of only three teams to broadcast all of its games in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM) as a way of reaching Houston's long ignored Spanish speaking population.

Patterson graduated from Dulles High School (Houston) in May of 1975, where he started on the basketball team (ranked fifth in Texas) his senior year. Patterson, born Sept. 21, 1957 in Beaver Dam, Wis., then attended the University of Texas where he graduated with honors, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing in December, 1980. Then he attended UT's Law School where he graduated in 1984, and was admitted to the Texas Bar, Nov. 2, 1984.

RAY A. PATTERSON

Patterson has been the Rockets' chief operating officer for 18 years—22 years total in the NBA. He has served the last eight years under club owner Thomas, his longest term under the same owner. His term as an NBA chief officer is equaled by Jerry Colangelo at Phoenix, surpassed only by Red Auerbach's 38 years with Boston. Of those in the league when Patterson started with Milwaukee and Colangelo at Phoenix in 1968, the only remaining owner is Abe Pollin of Washington.

His 33-year-old son, Steve, was promoted to General Manager on Sept. 13, 1989 giving the Rockets the first father-son duo to run an NBA franchise as President and GM.

Several distinctions belong to Patterson during his NBA tenure. He is the only General Manager in the league's 43 years to have two different franchises in the World Championship series. His 1971 Milwaukee Bucks captured the championship in the quickest leap, three years, from expansion to championship in pro sports history. His 1981 and 1986 Rockets lost in the finals to the Boston Celtics.

Only a handful of front office chiefs have been to the finals three times. Patterson's 22 teams have earned 15 playoff berths, including 10 of the last 12 seasons—only the Lakers, Boston and Milwaukee have been more times during this same period.

His teams have won four division and three conference championships.

This success on the court is also reflected at the gate as the Rockets have sold out 151 of their last 182 home games (this includes exhibition and playoff games). Houston has drawn more than 600,000 fans five straight seasons, and it broke its single-season attendance record a fourth-straight year with 681,051 fans in 1987-88. Patterson has helped cultivate a following for the team from an attendance low of 3,855 per game in 1973-74 to 1987-88's record sellout mark of 16,611 (the first year in franchise history every home game sold out). The last six Rockets' teams have become members of an elite group of NBA franchises to combine for over a million in home and road attendance.

Patterson has been the unifying force behind the Rockets in Houston, joining the team in 1972 in its second season in Texas. He was President and General Manager from May 1, 1972 through Sept. 10, 1989.

Under Patterson, the Rockets have an aggressive marketing package which supplements one of the finest broadcast packages in pro sports. All games are broadcast on the 19-station radio network which includes Houston flagship station KTRH Radio-740; games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). Long-range agreements have been signed for the telecast of all road games on KTXH-TV 20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable. The Rockets also own the rights to sell signage in the arena.

Fortune Magazine ranked the values of pro sports teams, and listed the Rockets among the Top Eight in the NBA—recent queries at purchasing the franchise have been $100 million—reflective of market size, management, marketing and competitiveness. An indication of just how far Patterson has guided this franchise is the Rockets' total attendance in 1973-74 was 158,059, with the highest ticket priced at $6.

Born in Lafayette, IN, Patterson holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from the University of Wisconsin where he was a four-year varsity basketball letter winner. He was team captain and MVP his final two seasons, and as a senior edged Arnie Risen of Big 10 champion Ohio State as first-team all-conference center. Patterson played two seasons of pro basketball with the Flint, MI, team in the National Basketball League. He returned to his prep school, Wayland Academy in Beaver Dam, WI, as basketball coach in 1949. He was named President and Headmaster of the school in 1954. He became the first President of the Milwaukee Bucks in 1968 and after four years there came to Houston as President and General Manager in May 1972. He also serves on the Board of the South Main Bank.

Ray and his wife, Ruth, reside in Sugar land. They have three sons and two daughters: Pat, a Princeton graduate; Steve, Liz, Peg and Pete, all University of Texas graduates.

ROCKETS ON THE AIR

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on the Rockets' 22-station radio network, with KTRH-740 AM serving as the flagship station; all the games are also broadcast in Spanish on KXYZ-1320 AM. The Rockets distribute their radio broadcasts on satellite via the Texas State Network, which also makes it possible to send special programming to all of the affiliates which cover a six-state area including Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

All road games are telecast by KTXH TV-20 and selected home games will be cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE).

As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets are scheduled for four appearances on TNT (Oct. 30 vs Detroit in annual Neismith Hall of Fame Game at Springfield, MA; Nov. 20 at New York, Jan. 29 vs San Antonio and Feb. 26 at Denver), plus the possibility of one game on NBC (March 3 at LA Lakers). A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets" is heard one hour before tipoff on weekend games. Head Coach Don Chaney can be heard weekly on KTRH Radio (740 AM). As part of the NBA's new Radio Network the Rockets will be heard on the 100-plus station network twice (Jan. 13 at LA Lakers and Jan. 31 vs Seattle).

The Radio Team

Gene Peterson, who is entering his 16th season as Voice of the Rockets, will be joined on all broadcasts for a fourth straight year by Rockets' Director of Communications, Jim Foley.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and has broadcast 1,230 regular season and 92 playoff games without a miss. The Albert Lea, MN, native studied broadcasting at Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, WI. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM; KCMO, Kansas City, MO; and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood—they have two sons, Todd, 27, and Paul 18, plus one daughter, Jennifer, 24. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Tournament has borne his name for the last five years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley, who is beginning his 22nd NBA season (18 Houston, 3 Milwaukee), was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations for 15 years after serving in that position three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. He was promoted to Director of Communications in August, 1987. The Marquette University graduate comes from LaSalle, IL. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. He was named Sports Information Director in 1965 at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities, including Houston's annual St. Patrick's Day Parade—he was the Grand Marshall in 1989. He is also an avid golfer. He and his wife Carolyn reside in Houston.

Rolando Becerra (play-by-play) and Alex Lopez-Negrete (color) are in their third season of describing Rockets' action in Spanish on KXYZ (1320 AM). The 41-year-old Becerra has been in the radio business 21 years, starting in Miami on WQBA as a sports reporter. He has been in Houston the last 12 years, and has been KXYZ's News/Sports Director since 1983. Since 1986 Becerra has been the Spanish voice of the Houston Astros. Becerra and his wife Jenny reside in Pasadena—they have one daughter (Barbara) and two sons (Jason, Jaron).

Lopez-Negrete, who was born in Houston, raised and educated in Mexico City, is president of Third Coast Marketing. Alex started his professional career in the U.S. by representing the Grupo Novedades de publicaciones (the largest publishing conglomerate in Mexico) in the Southwest. He also served as international/Mexico marketing counsel for some of Houston's largest advertising agencies, real estate developers and retailers before opening his own business. Alex and his wife Cathy reside in Missouri City—they have one daughter (Michelle) and son (Patrick).

The TV Team

Bill Worrell, plus a host of former Rockets—Mike Newlin, and Calvin Murphy, will team up to describe all the Rockets' action in 1990-91. Worrell will handle all play-by-play duties, with Newlin offering color commentary and Murphy handling interviews on all HSE telecasts; Murphy will be the color commentator on all road telecasts (KTXH), with Bruce Gietzen handling anchor chores in the studio.

Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at Houston's KRPG-TV 2 in 1970, and was that station's Sports Director from 1974 through 1980. He has been HSE's Sports Director since it began operation in 1982. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros, and Oilers—plus college football and basketball. He has been involved with Rockets' telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the last five seasons after having done play-by-play on Rockets' telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

Newlin, the Rockets' second-round draft pick in 1971, played 11 seasons in the NBA—his first eight with Houston. The 41-year-old native of Portland, OR, is sixth on the all-time Rockets' scoring list with 8,480 points in 604 games (14.0 per game); he is also fifth in free throw percentage (.864) and third in assists (2,561). Newlin played two seasons with the New Jersey Nets, and one with the New York Knicks before retiring following the 1981-82 season. He scored 12,507 points in 837 games—a 14.9 per game average.

This is Murphy's first year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20, and his second as an on-court reporter at all home games for HSE. He also handles community relations work, and helps the Rockets' players work on shooting (for further info, see his biography on page 9).

COACHES

Don Chaney does more than coach a basketball team - among other things he rides cutting horses and sky dives (as pictured above). He has also found time to work on and re-make older model cars.

DON CHANEY

Head Coach

Don Chaney, who became the eighth head coach in the Rockets' 24-year history on June 13, 1988, has shown he has the winning touch in his two seasons at the helm.

Consider the following:

Chaney is the only coach in franchise history to own .500+ records in each of his first two seasons.

He is the only Rockets' coach to win 30+ (31 each) home games in consecutive seasons; the Rockets have had a .500+ record in 10 of his 12 months as coach—another franchise best.

He has done all this by stressing defense. Over the last two seasons the Rockets have allowed opponents to shoot only .466 from the field—only Detroit, Utah and Phoenix have lower marks; the Rockets have averaged 46.5 rebounds per game over the last two seasons—the highest in the NBA. His teams have held opponents to less than 50 percent shooting from the field in 118 games, winning 78 times; the Rockets have held opponents to less than 100 points 49 times in the last two seasons—winning 40 of these games.

Last season's team finished 41-41, despite the fifth highest player games missed due to injuries total in the NBA (177). Houston, which had a .500+ record and playoff appearance for a franchise best sixth straight season, yielded only 105.3 points per game—the lowest yield since 1976-77 (104.8). The Rockets recorded a franchise record 809 steals, plus they grabbed their highest rebound total (47.0 per game) since 1976-77 (47.4).

Chaney's first team finished 45-37 in 1988-89, one game off the 1987-88 pace, but there were drastic improvements: 1) Houston finished 2nd in the Midwest Division after placing fourth in 1987-88; 2) Houston was 19-11 vs the Midwest as compared to 13-17 in 1987-88; 3) Houston was 8-7 in road games vs the Midwest after going 3-12 in 1987-88; 4) Houston didn't have a losing record during any month of the season—a franchise first. Houston picked up defensive intensity as it limited opponents to less than 100 points 23 times as compared to 17 in 1987-88—plus the Rockets were 40-20 in games they held opponents to less than 50 percent shooting from the field as compared to 37-24 in 1987-88.

The former University of Houston star (1965-68) was an assistant coach at Atlanta in 1987-88. He was the Los Angeles Clippers' head coach (1985-87), an assistant coach for the Clippers (1983-85), and an assistant at Detroit (1980-83) after ending a professional career that spanned 12 seasons (1968-80).

Atlanta General Manager Stan Kasten had this to say about the 43-year-old Chaney, "When we hired him we couldn't expect to keep him long. He's a fine coach and one of the warmest, most wonderful human beings you will ever be around. Chaney's personality is very important. His sincerity is why he gets along so well with players. It's one of the main reasons he will be very, very successful in Houston."

Chaney played 11 seasons in the NBA, one in the ABA after being the 12th pick in the first round of the 1968 draft by Boston. Chaney spent seven seasons with the Celtics (1968-75), before playing one season with the St. Louis Spirits (1975-76). He returned to the NBA in 1976-77 with the Los Angeles Lakers and then was traded back to Boston in December of 1977 where he finished his career.

A five-time second-team All-NBA defensive selection, Chaney is the only player in Celtics' history to have played with Bill Russell and Larry Bird. Boston, Chaney's favorite team as a youngster, won the NBA title in his rookie season (1969), which was the last time a team had won consecutive championships until the Lakers accomplished this feat in 1986-87 and 1987-88.

Midway through his second season, Chaney teamed with Jo Jo White as the starting guards and they helped lead Boston to an NBA championship in 1974. After his one season at St. Louis, the ABA was no more and four teams joined the NBA—St. Louis folded. Chaney signed with the LA Lakers as a free agent. That Lakers' team lost to Portland and the Walton Gang in the Western Conference finals.

Los Angeles traded Chaney and Kermit Washington to Boston for Charlie Scott in December 1977. Near the end of his final season, 1979-80, a hamstring injury sidelined him for the year. Boston's coach, Bill Fitch, asked Chaney to go scout an opponent.

"The interest to coach started there," the Baton Rouge, LA, native said.

He is beginning his 23rd year in pro basketball, and possesses a rich background in the game. Consider a few of his former teammates—Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Moses Malone, John Havlicek, Dave Cowens. He roomed with Don Nelson in Boston and played for Jerry West in Los Angeles.

It all started in Baton Rouge where he played for McKinley High's Carl Stewart where he averaged 26 points a game his senior season. Then he, and Elvin Hayes became the first blacks to play basketball at University of Houston in 1964. The Cougars controlled the town during a three-year span that saw the Hayes-Chaney duo lead them to an 81-12 record and two Final Four appearances. UH was ranked No. 1 in the nation in 1968 and won 31 straight games before losing to UCLA in the national semifinals.

Chaney and Hayes were also part of college basketball history on Jan. 20, 1968 in the Astrodome when they led the Cougars to a 71-69 win over UCLA to take over the No. 1 ranking in the nation. This was the first regular-season major college game to be nationally televised, plus it was the largest regular-season crowd (52,693) to witness a college game. Chaney played all 40 minutes, scored 11 points, had six rebounds and made three key steals in the last five minutes to help pull out the win.

"The UCLA game stands out more than anything," Chaney said of his entire basketball career. I run into people who remember me for that—and I played 12 years (in the pros)."

Chaney was a second-team AP, UPI All-America selection his senior season.

He lists among his hobbies, fishing, racquetball, restoring antique cars, skydiving and riding cutting horses.

Chaney is married (wife Jackie), they have one son (Michael) and two daughters (Donna and Kara). Donna is a freshman at University of Kentucky where she is a Pre-Med major.

CARROLL DAWSON

Assistant Coach

"CD" begins his 11th season with the Rockets, working with his third head coach (Del Harris 1980-83, Bill Fitch 1983-88). A "True Texan", Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, TX, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. Dawson earned All-Southwest Conference honors at Baylor his senior season when he averaged 16.4 points, and 8.8 rebounds in 1960. Dawson, who led the Bill Henderson's Baylor Bears in scoring and rebounding both seasons, averaged 13.3 points and 7.3 rebounds his junior year. In 1963 he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1973 and remained for 3 1/2 seasons. Dallas Cowboys' executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team, but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. A bachelor, Dawson resides in Houston and ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession.

RUDY TOMJANOVICH

Assistant Coach

Rudy T. is entering his eighth season as a Rockets' assistant coach, his 21st season with Rockets. He spent his entire 11-year NBA career with the Rockets, and was a scout for two years following his retirement in 1981. Calvin Murphy (23) and Tomjanovich (45) are the only Rockets to have their numbers retired. His 13,383 points ranks him second to Murphy on the Rockets' all-time list, while his 6,198 rebounds place him behind only Elvin Hayes and Moses Malone. He averaged better than 20 points a game four different seasons, with a high of 24.5 in 1973-74. Five times he was selected to play in the NBA All-Star game, including a starting spot in the 1979 game at Pontiac, Mich., after he came back from a facial fracture suffered in December, 1977. He was a fixture at starting forward for the Rockets his first nine seasons. He led the team in scoring four times, rebounding once and in field goal percentage five times. He had a .501 career field goal percentage. A native of Hamtramck, MI, he graduated from the University of Michigan where he is that school's all-time leading rebounder (1,089), and third highest scorer (1,808) behind Mike McGee and Cazzie Russell. Since 1974, Michigan's Most Improved Player Award has been named after him. Rudy and his wife Sophie reside in Southwest Houston with daughters Nicole 17, and Melissa 14, and son Rudy III, 7.

JOHN KILLILEA

Assistant Coach/Player Personnel

Killilea, who joined the Rockets Aug. 1, 1988, brings 14 years of NBA experience into his job of scouting the college and pro teams. Killilea was an assistant coach for Boston, Milwaukee and New Jersey (1971-85); he retired after the 1984-85 season for one year and then returned as head coach of the CBA's Topeka Sizzlers the last two seasons. This has been a reunion with second-year head coach Don Chaney as Killilea was an assistant for Boston from 1971-72 through the 1976-77 seasons—Chaney was the Celtics' starting guard during that time frame. Boston won five division titles and two NBA championships in Killilea's six seasons (1974, 1976 championships). Then he joined Milwaukee's Don Nelson as assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel from 1977-78 to 1982-83—the Bucks won four division championships in his last four seasons. Then he spent two seasons with New Jersey (Stan Albeck was the head coach)—in 1984 the Nets eliminated the defending NBA champion Philadelphia 76ers from the playoffs. Prior to joining the Celtics Killilea coached 18 years at five high schools in Maine and Massachusetts, compiling a 325-85 record (.793). His teams won six state championships in nine visits to the playoffs. He was voted Maine coach of the year (1957), and is a member of both the Maine Hall of Fame (1975) and Massachusetts Basketball Hall of Fame (1976). During his last two years as a high school coach he also found time to do some scouting on a parttime basis for Milwaukee Bucks' coach Larry Costello. A 1952 Boston University graduate, Killilea also holds a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Salem (MA) State. Recognized as one of the game's premier clinicians, he has conducted camps and coaching sessions throughout the world the last 20 years. He and his wife Ell reside in Brookfield, WI.

RAY MELCHIORRE

Trainer, Traveling Secretary

Melchiorre is in his fourth season with the Rockets, his 20th in professional basketball after becoming only the second trainer/traveling secretary in Houston Rockets' history in August 1987. He succeeded Dick Vandervoort who passed away July 4, 1987 while at his farm in Maryland. Prior to joining Houston, Melchiorre spent eight seasons with Boston, six with the Buffalo Braves and two with the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA). His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle strains and related injuries over his tenure with Boston. He was only the fifth trainer in the 42-year history of the Celtics. The Philadelphia native is a 1970 graduate of Bethel (McKenzie, TN) College, where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years. Melchiorre is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and licensed Texas Athletic Trainer Association. He has taught athletic injury courses at the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State College. During the summer Ray continues his work and stays busy with camps throughout the United States—plus making speaking appearances. Melchiorre was the East's trainer for the 1983 NBA All-Star game, and was the host trainer for the 1989 game in Houston. Ray and his wife Liz reside in Houston. They have a son, Michael and two daughters, Kathy and Lisa.

CALVIN MURPHY

Assistant Coach, Shooting/Community Relations

The "Greatest Rocket of Them All" returned Feb. 3, 1989 as the team's shooting coach and to work in community relations. He is in his first year as color commentator on KTXH-TV 20's road telecasts of Rockets games, plus he is in his second season as on-court reporter for home games on HSE. Calvin Murphy, the franchise's all-time leading scorer and one of two Rockets to have his number retired (former teammate and fellow coach Rudy Tomjanovich is the other), works with the younger players, plus he gives speeches and clinics while wearing his community relations hat. Murphy scored 17,949 points in 1,002 games—all with Houston (1970-83). The former Niagara All-America still holds the NBA record for most consecutive free throws made (78, Dec. 27, 1980 - Feb. 28, 1981), and highest FT percentage in one season (.958, 206-215, 1980-81). Murphy led the NBA in free throw percentage twice (1981, 1983), and finished among the Top Five nine other times—including second on eight occasions. Murphy (5) and Rick Barry (7) are the only two players in league history to have shot .900 or better from the line in five or more seasons. The Norwalk, Conn., native is one of only two Rockets to have ranked among the Top 10 in four different statistical categories in one season (Akeem Olajuwon 1987-90 is the other). He still owns the Rockets' single-game scoring record of 57 points vs New Jersey on March 18, 1978—he was 24-40 from the field, 9-12 from the line. Murphy was named to the NBA All-Rookie team in 1971 after being drafted by the Rockets in the second round (18th pick overall). His greatest single season came in 1977-78 when he averaged 25.6 points in 76 games. He averaged better than 20 points a game in five seasons (three consecutive, 1978-80). Murphy averaged in double figures every season he played—professionally, in college and high school.

Calvin averaged 33.1 points in 77 games for Niagara—he averaged 48.9 points in 19 freshman games in 1966-67. Murphy is married (wife Vernetta) and they have two daughters (Tiffani, Tracie) and one son (Calvin Jr.).

My best friend in basketball is: "Patrick Ewing."

UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL WITH AKEEM OLAJUWON

(This is an excerpt from 1990-91 Sporting News Yearbook)

Best moment of my playing career: "1986, when we reached the Finals."

Worst moment of my playing career: "1986 when we lost to Boston in the Finals."

What I like most about basketball: "It is a fun, and cool game. You have to be an athlete to play the game."

The best basketball advice anyone ever gave me: "Getting the fundamentals down. My first coach (Otenlgbagbe) in Nigeria taught me that. Everything is in the fundamentals."

Favorite college basketball memory: "Playing on Phi Slama Jama (1982-83) with Clyde Drexler, Michael Young, Larry Micheaux, Reid Gettys and all the others."

If I could change positions, I would play: "Small forward. So I could 'shake and bake,' plus shoot jumpers inside and outside—but mainly so I could 'shake and bake.'"

Best athlete I have ever faced: "Patrick Ewing and David Robinson."

Opponent who frustrates me the most: "Mark Eaton...it's obvious."

Favorite entertainers: "Jazz musicians such as Al Kluh and Bob James."

When it comes to books, I recommend: "Anything by artists. I read books by the 20th century artists, and the Masters—such as Vasily Kandinsky, Claude Monet, Piet Mondrian...I like the wording, it is English at the highest level...very simple, so meaningful. There is a lot of information in short sentences. Also, I like architectural books on designs—space and forms. I like reading books by New York architects Richard Meyer and Charles Moore. I like books on Spanish and Mediterranean designs."

Favorite midnight snack: "Cantaloupe. I used to eat a lot of ice cream, but it's too fattening. I can eat all the cantaloupe I want. I eat what's good for me—when I come home from a game, I don't go right to sleep, I want to eat something, so I eat cantaloupe. I want to eat what's right—usually during the summer I weigh 265—but I weigh 245—my playing weight. Eating right (at midnight) and exercise has done it."

Favorite non-basketball team to follow: "Cameroon's soccer team in the World Cup. One reason is they represent Africa. Another reason is they are a big rival of Nigeria."

If I could spend a day with any historical figure, I would choose: "Pablo Picasso or Frank Lloyd Wright."

There's no one in the world I admire more than: "My mom and dad."

UP CLOSE AND PERSONAL WITH OTIS THORPE

In the offseason I enjoy: "Free time, playing golf because that's just a way of getting away from things. When out there (golf course) you just go out and pretty much enjoy doing what you like to do and that's playing against the course and enjoying nature."

My favorite entertainers: "That varies. I just like entertainment itself. Any time somebody can get out there and just perform and make other people feel good about themselves or just express their emotions—I think that's a big talent and I enjoy any type of entertainment. I like jazz, plays."

I stay at home to watch: "The Simpsons. Because of Bart—he's just a little brat, full of surprises. I can also sit down and watch a wildlife program in a second."

When it comes to books I recommend: "It's up to the individual. Right now, I'm interested in large animals and nature—anything about outdoors I read about."

My favorite midnight snack: "Normally, I always have a taste for sweets, I don't know why. During the season it's just trying to keep food into your body because midnight is the only time you have a chance to eat."

My favorite non-basketball team to follow: "Since living in Houston, the Oilers (football)."

I spend my money foolishly on: "Vacation. I see someplace I can go and enjoy my golf game, I go."

If I could spend a day with any historical figure, I would choose: "The only person(s) you could pretty much want to meet and want to sit down and talk to is probably Martin Luther King—and also Malcolm X. Because these are two men that went about the same thing, but used a different approach in order to get their point across. I would like to know what was on their mind(s)."

There's no one in the world I admire more than: "My mom (Lula Thorpe). My mom never had a chance to see me play basketball—she died (high blood pressure) in 1977 and I picked the game up in 1978. She would be at the top of my list."

In my younger days my mother thought I always was: "A homebody. I was always in front of the television, didn't say much—but any time mom asked me to do something I was always on my toes to do it for her."

My first exposure to basketball was: "Just playing with cousins. One of my cousins was a great player (Ronald Razz) in high school, but he was one of those players stuck in between positions that couldn't really advance in basketball. He was one of the best athletes to come out of our neighborhood. His influence was one of the things that got me going. I didn't play organized ball until my junior year in high school—my first game the coach told me to go in and I just ran straight out onto the floor before checking in at the scorers' table—I got a technical for it."

My favorite college basketball memory: "Being drafted (NBA). It was very exciting for me, because it was unexpected. I knew I was going to get drafted, but not that high (1st round) or that soon (9th pick)."

My best friend in basketball is: "People that look at the game as being a game—and a business at the same time—but just don't let it get to their heads."

If I could change positions I would play: "Every big man wants to be a point guard, and I'm going to say the same thing. I would like to be able to do things out there with the ball that I'm not capable of doing right now. Everything I do right now is with my back to the basket. I would like to be in a position (point guard) to see everything happening at the top of the key."

My basketball fantasy is: "Winning a championship. I think that's everybody's fantasy, and it's mine also."

Best athlete I have ever faced: "At my position I would have to say Kevin McHale. He has all the basics and fundamentals down on the block—and he utilizes them."

The opponent who frustrates me the most: "Phil Hanzlik. He's just a nagger. He's one of those guys very aggressive that stays right in on you—he's just a good defensive player, he doesn't back down and he's one of those guys who is smaller than you. You get frustrated with him like a little fly, you want to swat him off—you just get into trouble doing that. It's just a matter of keeping your mind into the game and pretty much playing. But he gets you to think another way."

Best moment of my playing career: "There's been a lot of great moments. I can't pinpoint one. I have just enjoyed being in the league."

Worst moment of my playing career: "That had to come last year against Utah (Jan. 23)."

What I like most about basketball: "I love the game. It's a job but I love the game. The travel I could do without. Just doing something you like and getting paid for it."

If I could pick one person to build an NBA team around, it would be: "There's so many talented players out there you could start building a team around. You have to build it around a person who has an attitude who wants to win; that wants to play with others—a person that is going to look at the whole picture, and pretty much see what you can do to better the team."

If I had to pay to watch someone else play: "I would have to stick with my teammate Akeem. Because he has a lot to offer for a man his size." With him going so much out there—defense, rebounding, running the floor like he does, shooting the 15-footer. It's just a treat to watch somebody like that."

If I could be NBA commissioner for a day: "I think you're going to need more time than that."

If I weren't playing pro basketball, I would be: "I would have gotten involved with social work."

After finishing my playing career I would like to: "Relax."

When I'm 64 I envision myself: "I don't look that far down the road right now."

HOUSTON ROCKETS' NOTES

ANOTHER FIRST

Four Rockets scored 20+ points vs the Lakers on May 1, a franchise playoff first (Thorpe 27, Maxwell 26, Floyd 23, Olajuwon 22) ... 20 times the Rockets have had three players top 20 points in the same game — the last time was April 24, 1987 at Portland, a 125-115 Houston win (Olajuwon 30, Ralph Sampson 23, Allen Leavell 22).

Houston has made the playoffs six straight seasons; 10 of the last 12 ... here's a list of the top current streaks:

Consecutive		Last 12 Seasons
LA Lakers	14	LA Lakers	12
Boston	11	Boston	12
Milwaukee	11	Milwaukee	12
Denver	9	Philadelphia	10
Portland	8	Portland	10
Detroit	7	HOUSTON	10
Utah	7
Chicago	6
HOUSTON	6

Akeem Olajuwon recorded his first playoff triple double, the third in Rockets' history, when he had 11 points, 11 rebounds, 10 blocks at LA on April 29 ... It is his fifth triple-double of the season ... the 10 blocks equals an NBA playoff record set by Mark Eaton of Utah vs Houston (April 26, 1985) ... Akeem is the first in NBA Playoff history to record a triple-double with DF blocks ... Akeem shares the NBA Finals record for blocks (8) with Bill Walton (Portland vs Philadelphia; June 5, 1977) — Olajuwon had 8 vs Boston on June 5, 1986.

Speaking of doing well against the best ... the Rockets went 6-6 against the four division leaders (2-2 vs the Lakers, 2-2 vs San Antonio, 1-1 vs Detroit and Philadelphia) ... among the 23 teams that didn't win division championships, only Portland had a better record, 8-5 (3-2 vs LA, 3-1 vs the Spurs, 1-1 vs Detroit and Philadelphia).

The Houston Rockets made the NBA Playoffs a sixth straight season, thanks to a dramatic win by Golden State over Seattle (124-122), combined with their own 100-88 victory over Utah on the last day of the season ... Houston went into the final day of the regular season trailing Seattle by one game for the final Western Conference playoff berth — needing a Warriors' win during the afternoon to get a chance to play for the playoffs ... Houston and Seattle each finished 41-41, the teams split the regular-season series (2-2), but the Rockets had a better conference record (28-28 to Seattle's 26-30) to break the tie and get the right to face the Lakers.

Houston continues its franchise record streak of six seasons without a losing record and playoff berth.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Rockets finished 31-10 in The Summit ... this is the third straight season Houston has gone 31-10 on its homecourt — the fourth time out of the last five seasons it has won at least 30 games at home ... the Rockets had a 10-game home winning streak in 1989-90, which is the third best in franchise history and the longest since they set the franchise record of 20 straight in 1985-86. Houston was 22-25 before the All-Star break, 19-16 since.

The Rockets found themselves with a 12-18 record after a Dec. 30 road loss at Charlotte ... Houston went 29-23 over the rest of the season and made the playoffs ... this isn't the first time the Rockets have bounced back...in 1980-81 Houston was 14-16 — it rebounded (literally, behind Moses Malone) to make it to the NBA Finals before losing to the Celtics ... 1981-82 saw the Rockets start with a 12-18 record — it finished 34-18...the last time Houston had a losing record after 30 games was 1986-87, 13-17, before finishing 29-23 (deja vu?) and making it to the Western Conference semifinals.

THE LAST 52 GAMES: As noted above, the Rockets went 29-23 since Jan. 1 ... before Jan. 1 Houston averaged 103.3 points to the opponents' 103.8; over the last 52 games: 108.7-106.0 ... before Jan. 1 the Rockets shot .473 from the field, including .278 from 3-PT range; over the last 52 games: .485 from the field including .329 from 3-PT range ... before Jan. 1 the Rockets averaged 19.4 turnovers per game; over the last 52 games: 17.9 ... before Jan. 1 Akeem Olajuwon averaged 22.8 points, 12.8 rebounds, 4.1 blocks, 2.0 steals, shooting .670 from the line; over the last 52 games: he averaged 25.2 points, 14.7 rebounds, 4.9 blocks, 2.2 steals and .738 from the line ... before Jan. 1 Sleepy Floyd averaged 8.9 points and 5.2 assists; over the last 52 games: he averaged 14.1 points and 8.5 assists ... Otis Thorpe shot .510 from the field over the first 30 games — .570 over the last 52.

NEW LINEUP: Head Coach Don Chaney inserted Vernon Maxwell into the starting lineup in place of Mitchell Wiggins on April 6 at Washington, and the Rockets responded with a 6-4 record ... this is the fifth starting lineup combination for Houston in 1989-90 ... the Rockets averaged 115.2 points, shot .501 (455-909) from the field, averaged 27 assists, out-rebounded the opposition 47.5-42.2, and out-dunked them 69-30 over the last 10 games of 1989-90 ... the other four starters all shot .531 or better from the field during this time (Thorpe .561, Olajuwon .550, Floyd .549 and Johnson .531) — each averaged 14.1 points or better—Maxwell averaged 14.8 points, 7.4 assists, 3.1 rebounds, 2 steals in 38 minutes per game.

TELLTALE SIGNS: The Rockets lost 15 games by 5 points or less in 1989-90 — and more than heartbreaking endings, there have been telltale signs leading up to the close losses ... Houston averaged 20 turnovers, and shot .700 (286-408) from the line — missing an average of 8 FTs — in the games it lost by 5 or less ... meanwhile, the opponents shot .484 from the field and .752 from the line in these games.

BOARD MEN: Houston grabbed 50+ rebounds in 27 games in 1989-90, including 60+ seven times ... the Rockets were 19-8 in 50+ rebound games including 7-0 when its 60+.

THREE SCORING 20: The Rockets were 10-6 when three or more scored 20+ in the same game — including 2-0 when it's four players ... here's the list:

IRON LINE: Houston's frontline of Buck Johnson, Otis Thorpe and Akeem Olajuwon could be called the "Iron Line" as they have started 93 consecutive games as a unit — the longest such streak among NBA frontlines ... they started every game in 1989-90, one of only two NBA teams that can make this claim—Portland (Buck Williams, Jerome Kersey, Kevin Duckworth) is the other ... Thorpe has started 329 straight games which is tops among active NBA players, Olajuwon has started 177 straight which is THIRD ... Johnson has started 93 straight games ... Thorpe has played in 378 straight games, which is tops among active NBA players ... Floyd is eighth (191), Olajuwon ninth (177) ... Since becoming teammates in 1988-89, Olajuwon and Thorpe have scored and rebounded in double figures in the same game 56 times — the Rockets are 35-21 in these games, 20-11 in 1989-90.

The Rockets had 177 player games missed due to injuries in 1989-90: Mitchell Wiggins (16), Tim McCormick (51), Mike Woodson (10), Adrian Caldwell (5), Byron Dinkins (33); Larry Smith (9), Chuck Nevitt (15), Lewis Lloyd (14 before being waived), John Lucas (25) ... the only teams with more missed games were Milwaukee, LA Clippers, New Jersey and Charlotte.

ROCKETS 1989-90 HIGHLIGHTS:

Houston won its first six games in March — it's the best March start since 1977 when the Rockets won a franchise record nine straight ... this streak could also be considered one of the best in franchise history the Rockets have had 22 winning streaks of five games or more, and only two others can compare — only one in importance as far as making the playoffs ... here's the March 1990 streak:

March 1, 112-104 vs Phoenix (Suns 36-17 coming into game, 9-game win streak)
 March 3, 129-109 vs Golden State (25-31, teams tied for 9th in the West)
 March 5, 109-105 at San Antonio (38-19, only fifth home loss of season)
 March 6, 112-95 vs LA Lakers (43-13, 3-game win streak)
 March 8, 111-97 vs Seattle (30-28, had won 7 of previous 10, 8th West)
 March 10, 105-95 vs Dallas (32-27, had won 8 of previous 13)

The other two streaks ... 1981-82: Rockets had a seven-game streak to improve record to 43-32, 5 of the opponents had +500 records; 5 of the wins came on the road (4 of the road wins came against +500 teams) ... 1970-71: San Diego won the last 7 games of the season, the first two against sub .500 teams, the last five against Boston 40-36, Baltimore 40-35, Detroit 43-35, Milwaukee 66-15, Phoenix 48-33 ... all seven games were at home.

Rockets defeat Orlando 146-123 on April 8 ... Houston led 119-84 after three quarters — it's the most points scored after three quarters in franchise history ... It's the 15th time the Rockets have hit 140 points in franchise history, the first since March 15, 1986 (148-116 vs LA Clippers) ... Rockets are 11-1 in games they have scored 140 or more (the only loss was 165-151 to Cincinnati on March 12, 1970—the 151 points is the Rockets' franchise record).

Houston averaged 47.0 rebounds per game, it's best average since 1976-77 (47.4).
 Houston allowed opponents 105.3 points per game, the lowest mark since 1976-77 (104.8)
 Houston made a franchise record 809 steals
 Houston blocked 551 shots, which marks the seventh straight season it has blocked 500+
 Houston shot .480 from the field, its best mark since 1985-86 (.490)
 Houston shot .720 from the line, its worst mark since 1984-85 (.699)
 Houston grabbed 3,855 rebounds, its best mark since 1978-77 (3,886)

THE SUMMIT

The Houston Rockets have called The Summit home since the building first opened in 1975. The Summit, which seats 16,279 for Rockets' games and better than 17,000 for other events, is located on a seven-acre site north of the Southwest Freeway, between Edloe and Timmons streets—approximately four miles from downtown.

Houston has compiled a 405-210 (.659) record in 15 seasons (25-20 in the playoffs) since the first game was played on Nov. 2, 1975 vs Milwaukee—a 104-89 Houston win. The Rockets have sold out 151 of the last 182 home dates including exhibitions and playoffs; taking a streak of 3 consecutive sellouts into their 16th Summit season. Houston has drawn better than 700,000 four of the last five seasons (including playoffs), averaging 16,000 per game. The Rockets top season was 1987-88 when they sold out every exhibition, regular-season and playoff game.

The Rockets will call The Summit home through the year 2,003 after signing a seven-year extension on their lease in October 1988. The Rockets also have exclusive control of the signage in the arena, television production of Rockets' games, program advertising and sales.

The site was donated to the City of Houston by Greenway Plaza, Kenneth Schnitzer, Chairman of the Board. Construction of The Summit began in late 1973 following approval by the Houston City Council in October that year. Construction was financed by the sale of $18 million of first mortgage revenue bonds. Under terms of a 30-year contract with the city, the operator of The Summit is the Arena Operating Company, Mike McGee, president.

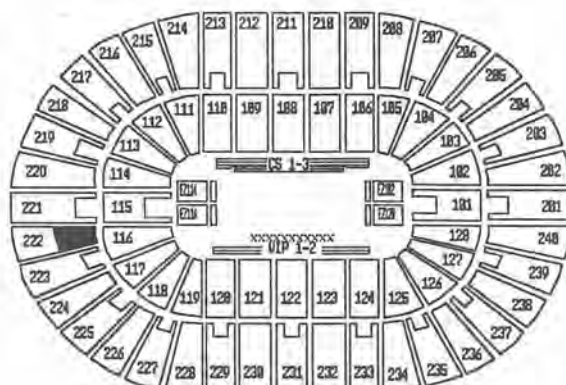

The building, 427-feet long by 312-feet wide, offers unobstructed viewing from seats on two major levels and from 20 plush private Summit suites located above the upper promenade level. Maximum distance of any spectator from the arena floor is 128 feet.

Some other features of the building, which has more than 2 million patrons attend 175 events annually, include two 20-feet wide by 15-feet high TelScreens suspended at each end of the arena; 55 Sony television monitors located throughout the concourse so patrons will not miss anything going on inside the arena; two 100-foot auxiliary scoreboards added in 1988 to the fascia at midcourt of the upper promenade (on both sides)—which also has message boards to keep patrons up-to-date on happenings in the NBA.

There are 12 hotels and 25 restaurants within a 2-mile radius of the building. The Summit is within 40 minutes of Houston's two major airports, Houston Intercontinental and William P. Hobby.

AKEEM, REBOUNDING, BLOCKED SHOTS AND THE NBA

Akeem Olajuwon is the 1989-90 NBA rebounding and blocked shots champion...not since 1976-77 has a player led the league in both categories in the same season...Bill Walton is the last to accomplish this as he averaged 14.4 rebounds and 3.3 blocks in 65 games for Portland in 1976-77...Walton also averaged 18.6 points in leading the Trail Blazers to the NBA championship...Kareem Abdul-Jabbar is the only other to do this—he averaged 16.9 rebounds and 4.1 blocks in 82 games for the 1975-76 Lakers (LA finished 40-42, 4th in the Pacific Division)...Jabbar also averaged 27.7 points...Olajuwon and Jabbar are the only ones to have recorded 1,000+ reb and 300+ blocks in the same season—Jabbar did it twice (1025, 316 in 1978-79; 1383, 338 in 1975-76)...no one has had 1,000 or more rebounds and 400 or more blocks in the same season...Akeem is the first Rocket to top 300 blocks in one season (he has 376)...he had 850 defensive rebounds and is the first player in the NBA to grab more than 800 defensive rebounds in a season since 1981-82 when Jack Sikma had 815...the Rockets' single-season record is 857 by Moses Malone (1978-79).

Olajuwon won his second straight NBA rebounding title and became the fourth player in league history to have won consecutive rebounding titles...Bill Russell (1957-59, 1963-65), Wilt Chamberlain (1959-63, 1965-69, 1970-73) and Moses Malone (1980-85) are the other three...Akeem is the only player in the NBA to have 1,000+ rebounds the last 2 seasons.

45 times a player grabbed 20 or more rebounds in a game in 1989-90—Akeem owns 10 of these performances: Olajuwon (25, 25, 22, 21, 21, 21, 20, 20, 20, 20) the others: teammate Otis Thorpe (26); Roy Tarpley (25, 22, 20) and James Donaldson (27), Dallas; Patrick Ewing, New York (24, 22, 21); Mark West, Phoenix (24); Bill Laimbeer (23, 23, 21, 20) and Dennis Rodman (20) Detroit; Rony Selkaly, Miami (22, 21); J.R. Reid, Charlotte (20); Sam Bowie, NJ (20); Tod Murphy, Minnesota (20); Benoit Benjamin, LA Clippers (22, 20); Fat Lever, Denver (22, 20); Charles Barkley, Philadelphia (22, 21, 21, 20); David Robinson (21) and Terry Cummings (24) SA; C. Shackelford, New Jersey (26, 24); Michael Cage, Seattle (21, 20); Moses Malone, Atlanta (20)... Chris Dudley, New Jersey (20).

Since starting his NBA career in 1984-85, Akeem has grabbed 20 or more rebounds 32 times...only seven other NBA players have had 10 or more such performances over this time span:
